

Here for You

By Erin Crowley

This was a quick, last-minute composition for FAWM this year. I had to do at least one dulcimer tune....and as for these totally simple lyrics—no matter how trite it sounds, sometimes you just need to hear this stuff. At least I do.

Hold on tight
You'll be okay
You'll find blue skies
Behind the gray
You'll be okay
You'll be okay

Look in my eyes
It'll be just fine
I'll be right here
Right by your side
It'll be all right
We'll be all right

oooooooooh---I'm here for you
oooooooooh---I'm here for you

Just take my hand
You'll make it through
Keep looking out
For those skies of blue
You'll make it through We'll make it through

oooooooooh---I'm here for you
oooooooooh---I'm here for you
